

Buying options

Editions

There are 3 editions.

Basic

The 'Basic beige' version with the classic look. This is also the most affordable version. $350

Starlight

The 'Starlight Edition'. It has a transparent case and PCB and has built-in LED-lights. And software control options for those lights. It is mid-priced. - $400

Founders

The 'Founders edition'. It also has a transparent case and built-in LED-lights. But it has a distinctive gold-yellow colour and a golden coloured keyboard. This is the most expensive version. - $550

Besides the esthetics and the LED-lights are all Commodore 64 Ultimate editions exactly the same.

Note: listed prices are without value added tax, shipping and potential import tax. Depending on the destination the final price can differ significantly. When ordering you get a better idea of the final price.
