Editions

There are 6 editions.

The classic 'bread bin' in 3 versions. And the 'slimline' in 3 versions.

The difference between editions

Besides the esthetics and the LED-lights are all Commodore 64 Ultimate editions exactly the same from a technical point of view and included materials.

Breadbin

Basic

The 'Basic beige' version with the classic look. This is also the most affordable version. USD$350

Starlight

The 'Starlight Edition'. It has a transparent case and PCB with built in LED-lights with software control options for those lights. It is mid priced. USD$400

Founders

The 'Founders edition'. It also has a transparent case and PCB with built in LED-lights. But it has a distinctive gold-yellow colour and a golden coloured keyboard. This is the most expensive version. USD$550

Slimline

Basic Beige

Starlight

Founders

Note: listed prices are without value added tax, shipping and potential import tax. Depending of the destination the final price can differ significantly. When ordering you get a better idea of the final price.

How to buy
